Second Sunday after Pentecost – Second Sunday of St. Matthew

*As we enter the Church let us pray.....
I will come into Thy House In the multitude of Thy mercy;
And in Thy fear I will worship toward Thy Holy Temple.*

Resurrectional Apolytikion – Tone 1

While the stone was sealed by the Jews, and the soldiers were guarding Thy most pure body, Thou didst arise on the third day, O Savior, granting life to the world. For which cause the heavenly powers cried aloud unto Thee, O giver of life. Glory to Thy Resurrection O Christ, glory to Thy kingdom, glory to Thy providence, O Thou Who alone art the lover of mankind.

Apolytikion of St. John Chrysostom - Tone 8

Grace shining forth from your lips like a beacon has enlightened the universe. It has shown to the world the riches of poverty. It has revealed to us the heights of humility. Teaching us by your words, O Father John Chrysostom, intercede before the Word, Christ our God, to save our souls!

Ordinary Kontakion of All Saints – Tone 2

O protection of Christians that cannot be put to shame, mediation unto the Creator most constant, O despise not the suppliant voices of those who have sinned; but be thou quick, O good one, to come unto our aid, who in faith cry unto thee: Hasten to intercession, and speed thou to make supplication, thou who dost ever protect, O Theotokos, them that honor thee.

SYNAXARION

On June 26 in the Holy Orthodox Church, we commemorate our Righteous Father David of Thessalonica. Born in Salonica, where he at first lived the ascetic life in a shelter he had built in an almond tree, David later continued his asceticism in Thessalonica. He purified himself so greatly by fasting, prayer and vigils that he was made worthy to receive great grace from God. Once David took a live coal in his hand, placed incense on it and censured the emperor, Justinian the Great, with no sort of protection for his hand. The emperor, when he saw this, bowed down to the ground before David, who amazed the people by his countless miracles. The holy ascetic healed many from sickness and gave spiritual counsel to all who came to him. David entered peacefully into rest in the blessedness of eternity in 540.

On this day, we also commemorate John, bishop of the Goths in Crimea. By their intercessions, O Christ God, have mercy upon us. Amen.
